KINDY J

Our Kindergarten class has started its learning journey. We navigated the first week with fun and learning through play. Students learned to listen and communicate with one another. Their imagination flowed as they built walls for Humpty Dumpty to sit on, drove the bus to the shop or packed to go on a picnic. They investigated using magnifying glasses to get a closer look at the sensory bottles, and explained floating and sinking in their own words. They learned to identify different shapes and colours, and count the number of teddy bears in the math corner.
