

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATIONLk 7: 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

FIRST READINGJob 38: 1. 8 - 11*RESP. PSALM*Ps 106: 23 - 26. 28 - 31

A reading from the book of Job

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther; here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep. R

2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their soul melted away in their distress. R

3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed. R

4. They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, the wonders he does for men. R

PLANNED GIVING AND PARISH CENSUS Our Parish Planned Giving Program is renewing for the coming year in July 2021. If your Family is already part of our community's Planned Giving Program by envelope, your new envelopes will be available to you at Mass later this month, in June. For those Families contributing by Direct Debit no action is necessary. Your planned giving gift through the second collection at Mass contributes to the finances of our community and goes towards maintaining and managing our expenses, pastoral projects and events and to further invest in our Church building project. If your Family would like to be part of our Planned Giving Program and through your gift help the future of our growing faith community and new church, or to register your interest in becoming involved in many of our community ministries and/or groups, as it is through your talents and involvement that we thrive, then please take a Parish Census Form after Mass. This form is for your family to complete and elect to become involved in the planned giving program plus complete your family's details to enable our parish records to be updated. The Census form is confidential and can be given to Fr. Vinh. If you elect on the Parish Census Form to join the planned giving, you will be contacted to confirm your involvement and you will receive a set of envelopes for you to make your contribution each week at Mass. If you choose the Direct Debit option, we will give you the forms to complete. Thank you all for supporting our beautiful parish family here at St John Paul II.

Celebrant: Sisters and brothers,
today we observe World Refugee Day with its theme ‘Together we Heal, Learn and Shine’, 70 years after the first United Nations Convention on Refugees

1. May the words and actions of Pope Francis on the care of refugees shape the conscience of all peoples, so that there can be healing for all live with this traumatic reality.
Lord, hear us.
2. May the young, whose lives are being thrown into chaos because they are refugees, be given the opportunities for education, vocational training, and skills development, so that with learning, their futures can be secure and fruitful.
Lord, hear us.
3. May refugees who have come to Australia, and who have been able to pursue their studies and are now well qualified in many fields, shine as our future leaders and as inspiration for the young for whom their future is daunting.
Lord, hear us.
4. May the many millions of people who languish in refugee camps in Asia, Africa and the Middle East, and are in detention centres in the Americas. Europe and Australia, be given the opportunity to live in safe places with housing, health care, education and work, so that they can live with dignity and peaceful hearts.
Lord, hear us.
5. May our prayer to Jesus who calmed the storm, bring calm to the distressing, violent and critical situation in Myanmar, so that human rights are restored, freedom of religion respected, and progress be possible for all who live in that land.
Lord, hear us.
6. May those who lost their lives on land and at sea, seeking refuge in safe places be received into the Father’s Home where no one is a stranger. We also remember....
Lord, hear us.
